Topic 2.3.4 Sales Process

Key Vocabulary

Sales process – the process of persuading a customer to buy the products

Product knowledge- how well staff know the features of the products and service issues, e.g. such as the precise terms of a warranty

Customer engagement – the attempt to make a customer feel part of something rather than an outsider

Customer feedback – comments, praise or criticisms given to the company by customers

Post-sales service – anything provided after you have paid for and received the product, e.g. updates, perhaps because something has gone wrong or a way of promoting customer engagement

Core Knowledge

To succeed in the sales process the following need to be provided:

- Strong product knowledge and therefore helpful advice from staff
- Speedy and efficient service
- Customer engagement
- Responses to customer feedback
- Excellent post-sales service

Benefits of good customer service:

- Customers feel valued, are loyal and more likely to repeat purchased
- Harder for competitors to steal customers if they are loyal
- Satisfied customers tell others – this could attract more customers to the business
- Satisfied customers can create a positive working environment and make a business a reputable employer
- Developing a reputation for good customer service can develop into a competitive advantage

Don't be a "man on the street"

- Do not assume that negative reviews will make a business fail – they can be ignored or people may have little choice
- Remember that not everyone uses social media so this may not be a good way to get customer engagement for some businesses

Wider Business World

Kia – have a 7 year warranty on new cars
